SLÖTTERPIT

The hungry earth has devoured Galgenbeck. The sun shrouded herself to escape its spires and domes. The sewers and catacombs groaned beneath their weight. Into Josilfa Migol's ear, Nechrubel whispered a final mystery.

Now SLÖTTERPIT gnashes her teeth in agony & wrath at the fearful motion stirring in her organs. The Mother of Monsters issues brood after abominable brood. The pit runneth over. From that vast, ruined abscess they crawl...

Drakaina

HP: 24
Morale: —
Plackart: -d2

Fanged umbilicus: d6 + infection

Abominable birth: every d4 rounds, the drakaina issues another monster. The round before each abominable birth, the drakaina loses the fanged umbilicous attack as the placenta drops and becomes an autonomous, mobile Vengeful Afterbirth.

Powers
Flesh of My Flesh: fully heal d2 spawn (not Vengeful Afterbirth)
Bloodnurse: d2 spawn suckle at their mother's open wounds, doubling their max HP. Only usable when the drakaina is below max HP. She can wound herself.

Curvaceous, of burnished skin, mostly nude and perpetually pregnant. The drakaina wears a bronze serpent mask behind which writhes the nest of vipers she calls hair. The rotund plackart at her waist is graven with the drakaina's own serpentine visage.

Spawn

Half standard HP, Morale: —, no weapons or armor. Special as per monster.

Vengeful Afterbirth

HP: 7, Morale: — , Squishy: -d2
Fanged umbilicus: d6 + infection
